

INDEX.

- Affor-pirates of Shakespeare's plays, 154 sqq., 167-78, 226.
- Adams, C. F., his asserction that Milton found no early readers in America, 15.
- Aitken, P. H., finds all the water-marks of the first Oxford book in use in 1468, 93.
- Alington, W., victim of the Widow Edith, 191; his will, 197.
- American printing, its range restricted by importation of books from England, 16 sq.
- Anthony, Saint, allusion to in Heywood's plays, 51 sq.
- Author's copy, no case known of its surviving the Elizabethan printers' hand, 218.
- Autin, Albert, notice of his 'L'Échec de la Réforme en France au XVI^e siècle', 134 sq.
- Bale, Bishop, his use of 'edidit' of authorship, 126, 128.
- Barcelona, printing at (1475), 270.
- Bataille, Henri, his 'Écrits sur le Théâtre' noticed, 65 sqq.
- Boston, Mass, its booksellers grew rich, 7; first book-catalogue published at, 9.
- Bourdillon, F. W., on a lost edition of 'Theseus de Cologne,' 73-83.
- Bourget, Paul, his novel 'Némésis' noticed, 205 sqq.
- Brackets, significance of in Shakespeare Quartos and First Folio, 161.
- Bréhier, Louis, his 'L'Art Chrétien' noticed, 132 sqq.
- Brewster, William, of New England, his books, 4 sq.
- Browne, William, the first edition of his 'Britannia's Pastorals,' 248.
- Brudermord, Der bestrafte, German version of 'Hamlet,' its importance for history of 'Hamlet' text, 218 sqq.
- Byrne, M. St. Clair, on date of Anthony Munday's journey to Rome, 106-15.
- Candy, H. C. H., on the first edition of Browne's Britannia's Pastorals, 248.
- Canterbury, plays acted at (1570), 251.
- Collier, J. Payne, mistakes as to Munday's visit to Rome, 108 sq.
- Compendious Examination of certain ordinary Complaints, see Discourse.
- Cornyshe, William, plays wrongly attributed to, by Dr. Wallace, 122 sqq.; his lament 'Truth and Information,' 124 sq.
- Cox, E. Marion, note on Poole's 'English Parnassus' (1657) 215 sq.
- Crane, Ellery, on scarcity of books in New England, 1.
- Debates, dramatic, no decisions reached in Heywood's, 41 sq.
- Dickson, Frederick S., on Errors and omissions in 'Tom Jones,' 18-26.
- Dimier, Louis, his lectures on Bossuet and Descartes, 200 sqq.
- Discourse of the Commonwealth of England (printed 1581, as 'A Compendious Examination of certain Complaints,' or 'A Briefe Concept of English Pollicy'), note on its authorship, 84-87.

- Dudley, Thomas, of New England, list of his books, 3.
- Dunton, John, experiences as a bookseller in new England, 7.
- Durtain, Luc, notice of his war-idyll, 'Lise,' 210 sq.
- Edidit, Bale's use of, 126, 128.
- Eliot, Jacob, his copy of Burton's 'Anatomy,' 13.
- England, Discourse on the Commonwealth of, note on its authorship, 84-87
- Feuillerat, Albert, on the authorship of the 'Discourse on the Commonwealth of England,' 84-87.
- French Literature, notices by Elizabeth Lee of Some Recent French Books, 58-72, 132-149, 200-214, 255-269. its moral attitude, 204.
- Fielding, Henry, paper on 'Errors and Omissions in 'Tom Jones,' by F. S. Dickson, 18-26.
- Fisher, Bishop of Rochester, the Widow Edith's flight from, 190.
- Four Elements, interlude of, authorship assigned to John Rastell, 126 sqq.
- Haebler, Konrad, his 'Bibliographia Ibérica del siglo xv,' Part 2, reviewed, 268.
- Hales, John, probable author of the 'Discourse of the Commonwealth of England,' 85.
- Hall, W., owner of Bodleian copy of Ovid's 'Metamorphoses' with Shakespeare signature, 97-103.
- Hawkins, John, father of the 'Widow Edith,' not the printer of 1530, 186.
- Herrick, C. A., paper on The Early New Englanders: What did they read? 1-17.
- Heywood, John, papers by A. W. Reed on the Canon of his Plays, 27-57, 116-31.
- Hijar, printing at in fifteenth century, 272.
- Hurus, Paul, de Constantia, printer at Barcelona (1475), 270 sq.
- Indulgences, scandal of, satirized in the 'Four P P,' 119 sq.
- Jean à la Barbe, note on his connection with Mandeville's Travels, 275.
- John of Salzburg, printer at Barcelona (1475,) 271.
- Kirkman, Francis, his list of Heywood's plays, 28-34.
- Lambert, A., discovery as to early Spanish printing, 270.
- Lee, Elizabeth, on Some Recent French Books, 58-72, 132-49, 200-14, 255-67.
- Lee, Samuel, the catalogue of his books (1693), the first published in Boston, 9.
- Leiria, Almanach printed at, (1496), 273.
- Madan, Falconer, on 'Two Lost Causes' (printing in Oxford in 1468 and the Shakespeare Signature in the Bodleian Ovid), 89-105.
- Mandeville, Sir John, note on authorship of the travels, 275.
- Masson, Pierre, notice of his letters, 142 sq.
- Mather, Richard, exceptional narrowness of his library, 4.
- Medwall, Henry, date of his death. 123 note.
- Mercers' Company, makes John Heywood 'Comen Mesurer,' 130.
- Middleton, William, his edition of the 'Four P P,' 34 sq., 37 sqq.
- Milton, John, early American references to, 15.

- Misprints in 'Hamlet' quartos, their significance, 166 sqq.
- Montalban, printing at in 15th century, 272.
- More, Sir Thomas, his 'Mery jest of a sergeant who would learne to play the frere,' 53-55.
- More, Sir Thomas, the Widow Edith at his house, 191, sqq.
- Mumpelgart, Count, original of Cosen Garmombles in Shakespeare's 'Merry Wives,' 244.
- Munday, Anthony, date of his journey to Rome, 106-115; his Verses in Hakluyt's 'Voyages,' 113.
- N. T. († T. Nash), note in Bodleian Ovid purporting to be written by, 97-103.
- New Englanders, paper on what the early New Englanders read, by C. A. Herrick, 1-17.
- New Plymouth Registry of Wills, 1633-54, books mentioned in, 2 sq.
- Notes on Old Books, 84-7, 215-16, 248-50.
- Nur-Brown Maid, its metre used by Sir T. More, 54.
- Oliver, Peter, accused Early New-Englanders of contempt for literature, 1.
- Oporto, printing at in 15th century, 272.
- Ossian, influence in France, 65.
- Ovid's Metamorphoses, (Aldus 1502), authenticity of 'Shakespeare' signature in Bodleian copy of, not impossible, 97-105.
- Oxford, the impossibility of the date '1468' for the introduction of printing there still not proven, 90-97.
- Parkman, Ebenezer, of New England, books read by, 11 sq.
- Pirate-Actors of Shakespeare's plays, 154 sqq., 167-78; 226.
- Plomer, H. R., on plays acted at Canterbury (1570), 251.
- Pollard, A. W., suggestions as to 'Hamlet' text, 164, 219.
- Poole, Josua, note on his 'English Parnassus' (1657), 215 sq.
- Printing, temporary discontinuance of, in various towns in 15th century, 92.
- Prose printed in blank-verse lengths in Elizabethan plays, 232-235.
- Provincial performances, plays of Shakespeare abridged for, 219 sqq.
- Punctuation, Shakespearian, difference, systems in good quartos and First Folio, 158; its detective value, 159 sq., 171.
- Pynson, Richard, his dealings with John Rushe, 150-52.
- Ramuz, C. F., his 'Cahiers Vaudois' noticed, 67 sq.
- Rastell, John, author of the interlude of the 'Four Elements,' 126 sqq. his abortive voyage to 'the new found land,' 127.
- Rastell, William, his editions of John Heywood's plays, 34 sq.
- Reed, Arthur W., on the Canon of Heywood's plays, 27-57, 116-31; on 'Twelve Mery Gestes of the Wydow Edyth,' 186-99.
- Reed, John, New England Quaker, his books, 6.
- Regent, Henry VII's Ship, references to its burning, 117 sq.
- Rood, Theoderic, site of his printing-house at Oxford, 94; doubtful identity with the 'Johannes Ducheman,' who surrendered a tenement before Michaelmas, 1470, ibid.
- Roper, Margaret, her 'treatise on the Paternoster' suspect, 195;

- urges her servant's suit for the Widow Edith, ibid.
- Rosebury, Lord, on 'Vanity Fair' and 'Tom Jones,' 26.
- Rowse, Henry, victim of the Widow Edith, 189; his assessment, 196.
- Rudler, Gustave, on the morality of French literature, 203 sqq.
- Rushe, John, Pynson's dealings with, 150 sqq.
- Scholderer, Victor, review of Haebler's 'Bibliografía Ibérica del siglo xv,' Part 2, 268-75.
- Scott, Sir W., on 'Tom Jones,' 26.
- Sewall, Samuel, of Salem, Mass., books read by, 10 sq.
- Shakespeare, Wm., authenticity of signature in Bodleian copy of Ovid's Metamorphoses (Aldus, 1502) not impossible, 97-105; the deaths he gives his heroes, 66; papers by J. Dover Wilson, on the Copy for 'Hamlet' (1603), 153-85, and the 'Hamlet' Transcript (1593), 217-47.
- Shrines, mentioned in Heywood's plays, 45.
- Simpson, Richard, mistakes as to Munday's Visit to Rome 109 sq.
- Singer, Dorothea Waley, note on Sir John Mandeville, 275.
- Smith, William, nephew of Sir Thomas Smith, authorship of 'Discourse of the Commonwealth of England,' wrongly credited to, 86.
- Smyth, Walter, recommended as City Sword-bearer, 131, 193; his books, 194; his 'Twelve Mery Gestes of the Wydow Edyth' true stories, 186-99.
- Spain, fifteenth century printing in, 268-75.
- Stafford, William, the W. S. who set forth the book of the Commonwealth of England in his own name, 84-7.
- Stukeley, Captain, his stay at Rome, 107 sqq.
- Tarleton's Jests, ridiculed in 'Hamlet' (1603), 240 sq.
- Theseus de Cologne, notes on a lost edition, by F. W. Bourdillon, 73-83.
- Thomas, Henry, note on Spanish Incunabula quoted, 274.
- Thompson, Sir E. Maunde, reply to his attack on authenticity of Shakespeare signature in Bodleian Ovid, 99-105.
- 'Tom Jones,' errors and omissions in, 18-26.
- Toussaint-Collignon, Marcel, his poems, 139 sq.
- 'True Tragedy of Richard III,' Queen's play ridiculed in 'Hamlet,' 239 sq.
- Valencia, first printer at, 271.
- Vizland, Jacobus, German owner of printing press at Valencia (1475), 270.
- Wallace, Dr., his attribution of plays to W. Cornyshe, 122 sqq.
- Watermarks, in the earliest Oxford books, 93.
- Williams, Dr. Daniel, note on 'A Short Account' of his Library, 88.
- Williams, Sir Roger, Shakespeare's Fluellen, 244.
- Wilson, J. Dover on the Copy for 'Hamlet' (1603), 153-85; and the 'Hamlet' Transcript (1593), 217-47.
- Zacuthus, Almanach perpetuum of 1496 printed at Leiria, 273.

o n t
-
a
-
h y
f
-
s s s
,
-
r
a of d
A
,
's or d
,
of